The classic narrative of White Folks, the ultimate con-artist who is Black but can pass himself as white. The sequel to iceberg's "Trick Baby" this is another sample of the Ice's genius and his ability to take us into a 'surreal' world of ghetto life.

And once again I am kind of shocked that iceberg Slim is not better known in the mainstream literary world. Essential writer at a time where the ghetto life was totally underground. Feb 18, Alonzo Smith rated it it was ok. Shot sequel to Trick Baby. It was a decent read but despite a colorful new cast of characters and the introduction of a new series of cons it never quite captures the spirit of the original.
