Galaxy Zack, 7. Oct 31, Alex rated it really liked it. I enjoyed this book because I like Galaxy Zack books. I also enjoyed this book because I like contests. I also enjoyed this book because I liked the part when Zack and Drake won the contest. The contest was a race course. Zack and his family are headed to the planet Gluco for Easter. Zack's best friend Drake gets to go with them. Zack is super excited. The entire planet is made of candy and they have fun contests for kids. But will the desire to win push Zack too far? Move over Willy Wonka's Factory, Zack's got a whole planet of candy! This is the kind of book that sparks kids' wildest imaginations. Everyone will be jealous of Zack. Zack learns a good lesson about playing fairly in the midst of his sugar-filled trip. Zack and his family are headed to the planet Gluco for Easter. Zack learns a good lesson about playing fairly in the midst of his sugar-filled trip, and I like what a good influence Drake is on him.

Recommended to candy lovers and lower grade scifi fans. Feb 14, Kristene Baldwin rated it really liked it. It took less than a week to read - fun and light for kids working on fluency. Just a cute story. Apr 18, Zazie rated it liked it. Fun series for kids. I recommend. And those eggs are big and round like softballs. Although he was a machine, Ira had quickly become a part of the Nelson family. Happy Easter! Zack wondered as he left his room and headed downstairs for dinner. About The Author. Ray O'Ryan.
